

Spring 2022 Online Art History Lecture

Art Appreciation through Understanding Art Galleries and Art Fairs

Tuesdays, January 18, 2022 - June 7, 2022 | 10 AM - 11:30 AM via ZOOM

This course explores how to appreciate art in galleries and art fairs. People often had difficulty understanding artists in galleries and art fairs because of the lack of contextual knowledge and socio-cultural background. The presence of arts and culture overwhelmingly affects respondents' sense of well-being and satisfaction, their attachment to a place, and their sense of community. Galleries have multiple roles, both visible and invisible: to incubate and support their artists, often by going above and beyond the normal work of putting on shows, promoting their artists, and selling the works; and to providing services such as financial management or book publishing, in order to support artists to focus more on their work.
